Good afternoon, technical support. I want to withdraw the $5,000 I earned, but it's asking me to deposit $150 for verification. Could you please explain why? And if I deposit those $150, will I then be able to withdraw the $5,000 I earned? Thank you.

Greetings! Thank you for contacting our Support Team! I'll gladly assist you today.

If your personal data on the Verification page has already been verified, in order to resume the Withdrawal of Funds you have one more step left - Account Activation. To Activate your Account, please follow these steps:

[1]. Make a Verification Deposit: Deposit $150 into your account. You can do this by direct crypto payment or by Bank card and other methods available for your location.
